

Frolicking With the Flowers

A Natural History Interpretive Experience at Anza Borrego State Park with
The Living Desert's
Kirk Anderson and Jennifer Purcell

What: Join Kirk Anderson, Living Desert's Garden Manager, Jennifer Purcell, Botanical Garden Registrar accompanied by an Anza Borrego State Park Naturalist, in experiencing Anza Borrego's natural wonders; geology, flora, fauna, and folk tales. This fun filled educational bus tour and wild flower stroll will leave you begging for more!

When: Saturday March 6th, 2010
6:30 a.m.—5:00 p.m.

Where: Meet at The Living Desert's Chase Patio 6:30 a.m.

Cost: $85 Member
$105 Non member
Price includes: Continental Breakfast at The Living Desert's gorgeous Chase Patio, Skilled Interpretation of the amazing and fascinating Coachella Valley's south east landscape, and Historic Anza Borrego State Park, Picnic Lunch, and Wildflower Identification Walk (rated easy). Lastly, our homeward stop will be at Oasis Date Garden for a Refreshing and Delicious Date Shake.

What To Wear: Casual hiking attire, comfortable closed toed walking shoes, hat, sunglasses and sun block.

What To Bring: Water, note pad, and binoculars.

Reservations are a must!

RSVP to: Jennifer Purcell: (760)346-5694 ext. 2255 or Christine Janson ext. 2506